VIKING WORLD

HAVE BREAKFAST
AT VIKING WORLD!

We offer a full range of coffee and dessert, as well as beer, wine and snacks.

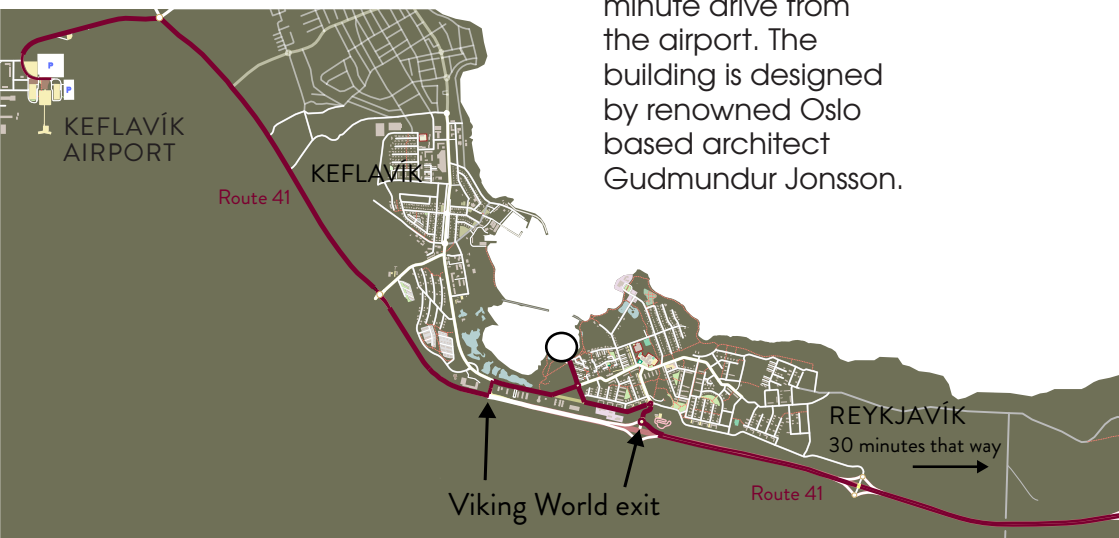

The Museum houses the beautifully built Viking ship, which sailed to New York to commemorate the sailing of the Vikings to America 1000 years earlier.

CLIMB ABOARD A REAL VIKING SHIP

The Viking ship the Icelander is an exact replica of an old Viking ship called the Gokstad ship, which was excavated from an ancient burial mound in Norway in 1882.

The Viking World Museum is located in Njardvik only 10 minute drive from the airport. The building is designed by renowned Oslo based architect Gudmundur Jonsson.

ONLY 1.800 ISK

Price of admission is included

At Viking World we serve a breakfast buffet from 7 – 10 am, every day, including Sundays and bank holidays. We serve porridge and milk, nuts and raisins, skyr yogurt (an Icelandic special) freshly baked rolls, croissants, butter and jam, an assortment of cheese and ham, soft boiled eggs, apple and orange juice and of course tea and coffee. We also have great surroundings and a fantastic view.
